QUAY COUNTY MAY HAVE FALL FAIR

Dry Farm Products to Be Exhibited; Bank President Returns; Personal.

Tucumcari, N. M., Sept. 6.—An agitation has begun for a fall fair in Quay county. In view of the fact that crops are growing nicely since the rains of the last month, which was 8.53 inches, it is believed that a fine collection of dry farming products could be gathered together. It is reported that east of Tucumcari there are hundreds of acres of hay tall enough to cut and which is sold by some to equal in nutrition the more popular feed.

Work has begun on the J. R. Daughtry building on Main street, occupying the site of the old building which was destroyed by fire. The concrete foundation is being put in and the building will be hurried to completion. The arrangement will be for offices as before.

It is reported that W. F. Buchanan, who left Tucumcari a few months ago to go into business at Los Angeles, Cal., has purchased the controlling interest of the International Bank of Commerce of Tucumcari from C. W. Carson, the present president, and will make this his future home. It is said the stock changed at a 5 percent premium. Mr. Buchanan was a former president of the First National bank of Tucumcari and one of the most prominent business men of this city. It being through his efforts that many of the public improvements were instituted, including the present First National bank building, and the handsome high school building. It is not reported in what business Mr. Harrison was engaged.

MAN SERIOUSLY SHOT AT ROSWELL

Man Who Confesses to the Shooting Says His Wife Had Been Insulted.

Roswell, N. M., Sept. 6.—D. H. Barela, connected with the city waterworks department, returning to his home at 19 o'clock at night, found his wife at the well near the residence talking to Mariano Carasco. He was assaulted by Carasco, who struck him with a club or a rock, inflicting a serious wound on his right arm. Carasco then started to run when Barela fired, the bullet striking the fleeing man in the back of his head and coming out at the jawbone near the nose.

Carasco was removed to the residence of Lalo Contreras and Barela went voluntarily to the jail and surrendered. Carasco is in a dying condition.

Barela when seen in the jail, said that Carasco had been annoying his wife for several days, which was the cause of him arming himself with a 32 caliber Winchester revolver, and that he had not been in the habit of carrying firearms. His fears in regard to Carasco had been aroused for several days. He said his wife had frankly told him that Carasco had told her that she must quit Barela or he (Carasco) would kill her. Barela had not had any domestic difficulties before Carasco had crossed his path, he said. Barela is aged 25 and Carasco is about 10 years his junior.

Mrs. Barela was formerly Martina Gonzalez, a beautiful Mexican girl and daughter of Joseph M. Gonzalez, a prominent and well known Republican politician. She was married six years ago to Barela and is the mother of two children, a girl and a boy.
